

Need Help Finding Child Care?

SB County Resource & Referral Agencies are Here to Help!

As a parent, looking for child care can be stressful and, as an essential worker in the current environment, it can seem overwhelming. If you would like additional assistance researching and locating child care that fits your family's needs, contact:

- Child Care Resource Center in San Bernardino at (909) 384-8000, ext. 4715
- Child Care Resource Center in Victorville at (760) 245-0770, ext. 3089
- Pomona Unified School District in Pomona at (909) 397-4740, ext. 25030

You will be directed to your local R&R agency to begin the enhanced child care referral process.

The Resource & Referral counselors will:

- Ask you questions to determine your family needs
- Research child care program availability
- Generate a referral list and contact child care providers to confirm vacancies on your behalf
- Inform child care providers that you may need care
- Contact you and share the referral list, provide child care consumer education, and inquire if you would like to receive the information electronically
- Let you know that if these referrals do not work, you can call back for more
- You then contact child care providers directly to select appropriate care

Resource & Referral agencies, including Child Care Resource Center and Pomona Unified School District, deliver services to thousands of families and child care providers. These services including assisting parents in finding and identifying quality child care; providing information to parents and child care providers on topics such as child development, health, and nutrition; and training and coaching for child care providers to improve the work they do with children.
