Big Potential —
The Power of Inclusion

Dear Colleague:

Please join us April 11–13 for HASC’s Annual Meeting, a gathering for health care leaders looking to share information, network and learn. This year’s theme — Big Potential — The Power of Inclusion — will play out at the Park Hyatt Aviara Resort in Carlsbad. Our speakers are visionaries and leaders who will provoke thoughtful discussion on how we will collaborate and evolve.

- Shawn Achor, collaboration, engagement and work-satisfaction thinker and author
- David Gergen, CNN political analyst and White House advisor to four presidential administrations including Nixon, Ford, Reagan and Clinton.
- Carmela Coyle, newly-appointed CHA President/CEO and former CEO, Maryland Hospital Association
- Ian Morrison, noted health care futurist

The 2017 annual meeting drew more than 500 attendees, including 75 hospital CEOs, 125 C-Suite executives, a broad range of sponsor representatives and family members and guests who participated in a golf tournament, round robin tennis, a fun run/walk, several networking events and a packed agenda. See you there!

Sincerely,

*George W. Greene, Esq.
President/CEO
HASC*

*Craig Leach
2018 HASC Board Chair
President/CEO,
Torrance Memorial Medical Center*

2018 Annual Meeting Speakers

SHAWN ACHOR

Shawn Achor is the New York Times best-selling author of The Happiness Advantage and Before Happiness. He spent 12 years at Harvard, where he won over a dozen distinguished teaching awards, and delivered lectures on positive psychology in one of the most popular classes at the university. His next book, Big Potential: How Transforming the Pursuit of Success Raises Our Achievement, Happiness and Well-Being is scheduled for release in 2018.

Achor is one of the world's leading experts on the connection between happiness and success. He has worked with Fortune 100 companies, the NFL, the Pentagon and the U.S. Treasury. His research on happiness made the cover of Harvard Business Review, his TED talk is one of the most popular of all time with over 10 million views, and his lecture airing on PBS has been seen by millions.

CARMELA COYLE

Carmela Coyle, CHA's president and CEO was formerly president and CEO at the Maryland Hospital Association (MHA) from 2008 until late 2017. During her tenure at MHA, she played a leading role in reframing the hospital payment system in Maryland, moving to a value-based methodology.

Prior to joining MHA, Coyle spent 20 years in various roles with the American Hospital Association (AHA), including 11 years as senior vice president of policy, where she served as a national media spokesperson and led AHA's policy development and strategy planning activities. Earlier in her career, Coyle worked for the Congressional Budget Office in Washington, D.C.

Coyle currently serves as a member of the AHA Board of Trustees, the Living Legacy Foundation and the Caring Bridge Consumer Advisory Council. She has been named Influential Marylander in 2010 and 2016, and as the Maryland Association of Health Care Executives Most Valuable Partner in 2013.

DAVID GERGEN

David Gergen is professor of public service and co-director of the Center for Public Leadership at the Harvard Kennedy School – positions he has held for over a decade. In addition, Gergen serves as a senior political analyst for CNN and works actively with a rising generation of new leaders. In the past, he served as a White House adviser to four U.S. presidents of both parties: Nixon, Ford, Reagan and Clinton. He wrote about those experiences in his New York Times bestseller, Eyewitness to Power: The Essence of Leadership, Nixon to Clinton (2001).

In the 1980s, he began a career in journalism. Twice he has been a member of election coverage teams that won Peabody awards, and he has contributed to two Emmy award-winning political analysis teams.

IAN MORRISON

Ian Morrison is an internationally-known author, consultant and futurist specializing in long-term forecasting with an emphasis on health care. He combines research and consulting skills with an engaging Scottish wit to help public and private organizations plan their longer-term futures. He is a frequent commentator on the future of health care for television, radio and print media.

Morrison is the author of Leading Change in Healthcare: Building a Viable System for Today and Tomorrow and Healthcare in the New Millennium: Vision, Values and Leadership. A previous book, The Second Curve – Managing the Velocity of Change, was a New York Times business bestseller.

Morrison is president emeritus of the Institute for the Future (IFTF). He is a founding partner in Strategic Health Perspectives, a joint venture between Harris Interactive and the Harvard School of Public Health's Department of Health Policy and Management. Morrison is a past director and chair of the California Health Care Foundation and is a director at Martin Luther King, Jr. Community Hospital in Los Angeles.
